

Relative occurrence of terrorist targets between clusters of countries 1970-2013

Aviation: attack against a non-military aircraft or airport - Business: individuals or organizations engaged in commercial or mercantile activity - Diplomatic: foreign missions, including embassies, consulates etc. Educational: schools, teachers, school guards, incl. religious schools - Government: government building, (former) members, political events and institutions - Media: reporters, photographers, publishers, incl. attack on media headquarters and offices - Militia / Terrorists: non-state militia, members of identified terrorist group - Military: Military equipment and personel, incl. peacekeeping units - NGO: offices and employees of Non-Governmental Organizations - Police: police force and installations, incl. prisons - Private Citizens: individuals, the public or attack in public areas, eg. markets, malls, weddings - Religious: Religious leaders, institutions, places or objects, incl. non-NGO religious organizations - Telecom: cell phone towers, telephone booths, tv/radio transmitters etc. - Transportation: Public transportation systems, such as busses, subways, bridges, roads, excl. aviation - Tourists: tourists, tourist offices, tour busses etc. See source for a complete list of categories.